BRINGING CHESS INTO AMERICAN CLASSROOMS

What?

America's Foundation for Chess, in partnership with the Detlef Schrempf Foundation, is hosting First Move Chess Challenge 2004 — a celebrities vs. kids' chess match and dinner featuring Choose to Stay author, chess coach and award-winning principal Salome Thomas-EL as keynote speaker.

Thomas-EL with chess supporter Arnold Schwarzenegger, who wrote the foreword in Thomas-EL's book.

When and Where?

On Sun., Sept. 19, the children's Play-Off Matches will be held from 2 — 5 p.m. at Bellevue Square. From 6 — 8 p.m., the top five kids will square off with celebrities during dinner catered by Seastar Restaurant & Raw Bar to be held in Bellevue's Civica Office Commons Great Room. Thomas-EL will top off the evening with insights from his memoir. Walt Disney is planning a movie based on his life and that of his chess students.

Owner and Chef John Howie offers guests a selection of menu favorites.

2003 US Women's Chess Champion Anna Hahn will play simultaneous chess matches with adults and children at Bellevue Square on Sept. 19.

Why Support Classroom Chess?

- * Boosts Problem Solving Skills
- * Builds Confidence
- * Bridges Language Gap

It's also an inexpensive tool!

Help us raise awareness and funding for AF4C's First Move for Education program. AF4C tackles learning gap head on by training teachers to use chess as a classroom tool to build math, problem solving skills and self-esteem in Western Washington's elementary schools.

How?
