MOTION TO REMOVE FIDE PRESIDENT

WHEREAS

1. President Kirsan Ilyumzhinov (hereafter called “the FIDE President”) has not kept a number of the promises he made during the last World Chess Federation (“FIDE”) Presidential campaign, including promises made on the 11th August, 2014, the day of the Presidential election at the Congress or General Assembly of FIDE in Tromsø, Norway to provide specific sums for funding Chess activities.

Affiliated to F.I.D.E. (World Chess Federation) since 1972

President: Ian Wilkinson QC; Vice-Presidents: Mark Holness, Peter Myers, Jomo Pitterson;
Acting Treasurer: Robert Wheeler; Acting Secretary: Jomo Pitterson
Executive Members: Ryan Blackwood, Maxine Brown, Dr. Nigel Clarke, Litra Clemetson, Warren Elliott, Terence Lindo, Malaku Lorne, Mikhail Solomon

AND WHEREAS

2. Since in or about late 2015, the US Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") has imposed sanctions on the FIDE President for, among other things, allegedly "materially assisting and acting for or on behalf of the Government of Syria and the Central Bank of Syria".

AND WHEREAS

3. By virtue of the said sanctions by OFAC, any assets owned by the FIDE President in the United States of America are frozen and citizens of the United States of America are generally prohibited from engaging in transactions with the FIDE President.

AND WHEREAS

4. The citizens of the United States of America include members of the United States Chess Federation, including any governing administration and players, with whom FIDE, in particular the FIDE President, is obligated to deal by virtue of his office as president of FIDE.

AND WHEREAS

5. Based, among other things, on the said sanctions by OFAC against the FIDE President, FIDE's operations, including its bank accounts, have been adversely affected or are likely to be adversely affected or subject to restrictions by OFAC.

AND WHEREAS

6. The operations of the Confederation of Chess for the Americas ("FIDE America") to which Jamaica belongs have also been adversely affected, or are likely to be affected, as a direct result of the sanctions by OFAC against the FIDE President.

AND WHEREAS

7. In or about December, 2015 the FIDE President purportedly gave up his powers as President pending the resolution of the OFAC sanctions against him but, nevertheless, since then he has appeared at a number of events in his official capacity as President of FIDE.

AND WHEREAS

8. In or about April, 2015 the FIDE President was elected as the Associate Members' Council member on the Sport Accord Council but in or about late 2015 and 2016 the FIDE President was removed from the Sport Accord Council as the representative of the Associate Members and duly replaced.

AND WHEREAS

9. FIDE's reputation (and by extension the reputation of the sport of Chess) has suffered significantly due to the OFAC sanctions against the FIDE President with serious consequences, including loss of potential income, sponsorship opportunities and other forms of support for FIDE.

AND WHEREAS

10. The said sanctions by OFAC have prevented the FIDE President from carrying out his duties as President of FIDE effectively. Further, while the said sanctions are in place they will continue to prevent the FIDE President from being effective or from discharging his responsibilities properly or at all.

AND WHEREAS

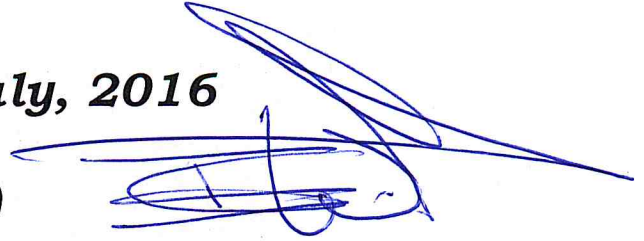

11. The said OFAC sanctions against the FIDE President have devalued and/or weakened significantly the office of President of FIDE and brought disrepute and/or public scandal to the said office.
